

“Good Job”
by Alicia Keys

You’re the engine that
Makes all things go and
You’re always in disguise,
My hero.

I see your light in the dark
Smile in my face
When we all know it’s hard

There’s no way to ever
Pay you back
Bless your heart.
Know I love you for that
Honest and selfless
I don’t know if this helps it, but

Good job, you’re doing a
Good job, a good job
You’re doing a good job
Don’t get too down
The world needs you now
Know that you matter
Matter, matter, yeah.

You’re doing a good job
Don’t get too down
The world needs you now
Know that you matter.
Matter, matter, yeah.
(Repeat)

Six in the morning
And soon as you walk
Through that door
Everyone needs you again
The world’s out of order
It’s not as sound
When you’re not around

All day on your feet
Hard keep that energy
I know when it feels like

The end of the road
You don’t let go
You just press forward.

You’re the engine that
Makes all things go and
You’re always in disguise,
My hero.

I see your light in the dark
Smile in my face
When we all know it’s hard.

There’s no way to ever
Pay you back
Bless your heart.
Know I love you for that
Honest and selfless
I don’t know if this helps it, but

Good job, you’re doing a
Good job, a good job
You’re doing a good job
Don’t get too down
The world needs you now
Know that you matter
Matter, matter, yeah.

The mothers, the fathers.
The teacher that reach us
Strangers to friends that Show up in the end
From the bottom to the top
The listeners that hear us
This is for you
You make me fearless

Good job, you’re doing a
Good job, a good job
You’re doing a good job
Don’t get too down
The world needs you now
Know that you matter
Matter, matter, yeah.
