

Drei Verben im Deutschen für to know

List the three verbs in German meaning to know and give the full conjugation to each.

Review the information sheet on the web for guidance.

Explain the meaning and usage of each verb. Be able to cite examples from the website info sheet.

Be prepared to translate sentences into German based on the web handout.

Thoroughly learn (memorize) the examples from the on-line info-sheets.

<http://clasfaculty.ucdenver.edu/tphillips/grammar/wissen+kennen+koennen+info+sheet.pdf>

<http://clasfaculty.ucdenver.edu/tphillips/GRMN1010/know%20%28%203%20verbs%29%20exercises.pdf>

Das verb werden

Write the full conjugation to this irregular verb.

Give the lexical meaning as well as the auxiliary meaning. (Refer to your class notes & web sheet.)

Provide examples sentences in German showing you understand how this verb is used.

Be ready to translate sentences into German. Use the website info sheet for help.

http://clasfaculty.ucdenver.edu/tphillips/grammar/werden_basic_intro.pdf

Modalverben

Name the six German modal verbs and give the full conjugation to each.

Give the meanings to each.

Be prepared to provide a full German sentence for each - with English translations.

Explain how the grammar & word order operates in sentences containing both a modal & a lexical verb.

Give the meanings to the NEGATED forms of müssen & dürfen.

Provide the full conjugation to the subjunctive form möchten.

Explain the difference in meaning between the indicative and the subjunctive of mögen.

(Indicative = mag magst mögen, etc. / subjunctive = möchte möchtest möchten, etc.)

Write sentences in German (& translations) showing you understand the difference between mögen & möchten.

Notice that some modal verbs can take a direct object with no lexical verb.

(Ich will Wasser. - I want water. / Sie mag Musik. - She likes music.)

Translate sentences from English into German. Examine the website info sheet for explanations & examples.

http://clasfaculty.ucdenver.edu/tphillips/grammar/modal_verbs_intro.pdf

<http://clasfaculty.ucdenver.edu/tphillips/GRMN1010/modals-beginning-translations.pdf>

<http://clasfaculty.ucdenver.edu/tphillips/GRMN1010/ModalVerbTranslations.pdf>

Übungssätze - Practice Sentences

Work on the practice sentences for

- werden

- 3 verbs for 'to know'

- the 6 modal verbs

<http://clasfaculty.ucdenver.edu/tphillips/GRMN1010/Test4-Practice-Sentences-for-Trans.pdf>

We will work on verbs with a separable prefix at a later date.