

Exercises with Nominative and Accusative Case

Before starting on this worksheet, be sure you have memorized the following for both the nominative and accusative cases:

1 - Personal Pronouns / 2- Endings for the 'ein' words / 3 - Endings for the 'der' words.

Render the following sentences into German. Pay close attention to the use of case.

Subject takes Nominative Case, Predicate Nominal (re-namer) takes Nominative Case, Direct Object takes Accusative Case

Check your work against the key on the right. Try to complete the exercises without peeking.

- | | |
|--|---------------------------------|
| 1. _____
She is a student. | Sie ist (eine) Studentin. |
| 2. _____
My car is broken. (use: Wagen, masculine / kaputt) | Mein Wagen ist kaputt. |
| 3. _____
I'm buying the coffee. | Ich kaufe den Kaffee. |
| 4. _____
Do you have a pen? (say: 'have you a pen', use: 'du') | Hast du einen Kugelschreiber? |
| 5. _____
I know him. (kennen) | Ich kenne ihn. |
| 6. _____
We live in Denver. | Wir wohnen in Denver. |
| 7. _____
They know me. | Sie kennen mich. |
| 8. _____
Do you guys have a clock/watch? | Habt ihr eine Uhr? |
| 9. _____
We are buying their car. (use: Wagen, masculine) | Wir kaufen ihren Wagen. |
| 10. _____
We know you guys. | Wir kennen euch. |
| 11. _____
Where is my notebook? | Wo ist mein Heft. |
| 12. _____
They are buying the beer. | Sie kaufen das Bier. |
| 13. _____
I have my pen. | Ich habe meinen Kugelschreiber. |
| 14. _____
The Americans know her. | Die Amerikaner kennen sie. |
| 15. _____
We know them. | Wir kennen sie. |