Can you Feel the Love Tonight

| Verse:                                | G D                                |
|---------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
|                                       | There's a time for everyone        |
| G D                                   | G D                                |
| There's a calm surrender              | If they only learn                 |
| G D                                   | G D                                |
| To the rush of day                    | That the twisting kaleidoscope     |
| G D                                   | Em A                               |
| When the heat of the rolling world    | Moves us all in turn               |
| Em A                                  |                                    |
| Can be turned away                    | G D                                |
| ,                                     | There's a rhyme and reason         |
| G D                                   | G D                                |
| An enchanted moment                   | To the wild outdoors               |
| G D                                   | G D                                |
| And it sees me through                | When the heart of the star-crossed |
| G D                                   | voyager                            |
| It's enough for this restless warrior |                                    |
| Em A                                  | Beats in time with yours           |
| Just to be with you                   |                                    |
| caet to so man you                    | [Repeat chorus ]            |
| Chorus :                       | [, topout official)                |
| D A Bm G                              | G D Bm                             |
| And can you feel the love tonight     | It's enough to make kings and      |
| D A                                   | vagabonds                          |
| It is where we are                    | Em A D                             |
| G A Bm                                |                                    |
| It's enough for this wide-eyed        | Bolleve the very seet              |
| wanderer                              |                                    |
| Em A D                                |                                    |
| That we've got this far               |                                    |
| That we ve get the fai                |                                    |
| D A Bm G                              |                                    |
| And can you feel the love tonight     |                                    |
| D A                                   |                                    |
| How it's laid to rest                 |                                    |
| G A Bm                                |                                    |
| It's enough to make kings and         |                                    |
| vagabonds                             |                                    |
| Em A D                                |                                    |
| Believe the very best                 |                                    |
| Donovo the very boot                  |                                    |