

Dominique

D G
Dominique, nique, nique s'en allait
tout simplement

D A
Routier pauvre et chantant

D
En tous chemins, en tous lieux

G
Il ne parle que du bon Dieu

D A D
Il ne parle que du bon Dieu

D
At a time when Johnny Lackland
A D over England was the King.

E
Dominique was in the backland
A
fighting sin like anything.

Refrain
D
Now a heretic one day, among the
A D thorns forced him to crawl.

E
Dominique with just one prayer
made him hear the good Lord's call.

Refrain
D
Without horse or fancy wagon, he
A D crossed Europe up and down.

E Poverty was his companion as he
walked from town to town.

Refrain
D
One day in the budding order,
A D
there was nothing left to eat.

E
Suddenly two angels walked in
with a load of bread and meat.

Refrain
D
Grant us now oh Dominique the
A D
grace of love and simple mirth.

E
That we all may help to quicken
A
godly life and truth on earth.

D G
Dominique, nique, nique s'en allait tout
