```
 D                                      G                  D
I come to the garden alone while the dew is still on the roses.
        A                D    B*      E              A   A7
And the voice I hear falling on my ear, the Son of God discloses.
```

```
