

Over and Over

By Nana Mouskouri

I never dared to reach for the moon
I never thought I knew heaven so soon
I couldn't hold to say how I feel
The joy in my heart no words can reveal

Over and over I'll whisper your name
Over and over I'll kiss you again
I'll see the light of love in your eyes
Love is forever
No more goodbye

Now just a memory the tears that I cried
Now just a memory that sighs that I sighed
Dreams that I cherished know how come to
All my tomorrow
I'll give to you

Over and over I'll whisper your name
Over and over I'll kiss you again
I'll see the light of love in your eyes
Love is forever
No more goodbye

Like summer leaves may turn to gold
The love that we share will never grow old
Here in your arms though I'm far away
Here in your arms forever I'll stay

Over and over I'll whisper your name
Over and over I'll kiss you again
I'll see the light of love in your eyes
Love is forever
No more goodbye
