Mc     Dm        A7        Dm     A7
Is this the little girl I carried?
Dm        A7        Dm     D7
Is this the little boy at play?
Gm        D7                    Gm     E7     A7
Ca I don't remember growing older -- When did they?

Mc     Dm            A7        Dm     A7
When did she get to be a beauty?
Dm            A7        Dm     D7
When did he grow to be so tall?
Gm        D7                    Gm     E7     A7
Ca Wasn't it yesterday when they were small?

Men     Dm            A7        Dm            A7
Sun-rise, sun-set, sun-rise, sun-set,
Dm        Gm6        Dm     D7
Swiftly flow the days;
Gm7            C7                    F
Seedlings turn overnight to sun-flow'rs,
Em7            A7                    Dm
Blossoming even as we gaze.

Women     Dm            A7        Dm            A7
Sun-rise, sun-set, sun-rise, sun-set,
Dm        Gm6        Dm     D7
Swiftly fly the years;
Gm7            C7                    F     F6
One season following another,
Gm            A7                    Dm
Laden with hap-pi-ness...and tears.

Merc     Dm            A7                    Dm     A7
What words of wisdom can I give them,
Dm            A7                    Dm     D7
How can I help to ease their way?
Gm            D7                    Gm     E7     A7
Carole Now they must learn from one another, Day by day.
